Swisslog wins major order from HARIBO

Buchs / Aarau, 8 March 2010 – HARIBO, the world market-leader in the jelly sweets and liquorice sector, has commissioned Swisslog to provide turnkey delivery of a new automated high bay warehouse system for finished goods, raw materials and supplies. The project will be realised at HARIBO's Solingen site. Swisslog has been commissioned to act as general contractor for this order. The order value amounts to a double-digit million figure.

Swisslog will provide all construction and logistics services for an automated high bay warehouse, a goods handling hall with automated pallet loading and an annex building with offices, meeting rooms and amenities. The project also includes a conveyor belt bridge to connect the automated high bay warehouse and the manufacturing area.

Construction is planned to start at the end of March 2010.

HARIBO

Family business with great tradition in confectionery

On 13 December 1920 the founder Hans Riegel senior registered the company in the commercial registry of the city Bonn. HARIBO stands as acronym for HAnS Riegel Bonn. The sons Dr. Hans Riegel (commercial sector) and Paul Riegel (technical sector) took over the company after the death of their father in 1946. Today Haribo is the leading producer in both, the fruitgum and licorice sector and employs approx. 6100 employees at over 16 sites worldwide. The famous Slogan "Haribo macht Kinder froh" (Haribo makes children happy) originates from the 30th and has been successfully accomplished through "und Erwachsene ebenso" (and grown-ups as well).

The originally through Hans Riegel sen. created product "Tanzbär" (Dancing Bear) is today Haribo's cult figure and known worldwide as the famous Gold Bear. Over 100 million Goldbears are produced daily. In 2009 Haribo has been elected for the seventh time in succession from consumers in Germany to be the most trusted confectionery brand which confirms the high quality of our products.
