Swisslog showcases Automated Material Transport Solutions at the ASHE 2009 International Conference and Exhibition on Health Facility Planning, Design and Construction™ (PDC).

Denver, Colo: Swisslog, a leader in automated material transport solutions for healthcare, will exhibit in booth #700 at the ASHE 2009 International Conference and Exhibition on Health Facility Planning, Design and Construction™ (PDC), March 9-10, 2009. Swisslog will be showcasing the Translogic pneumatic tube system (PTS) and the PillPick pharmacy automation system.

As the healthcare industry faces increasing challenges to operate more efficiently, hospitals are seeking new ways to optimize day-to-day operations. Whether the hospital is completely new construction, an expansion or a renovation, Swisslog offers total pneumatic tube system design, installation, implementation and support.

The TransLogic pneumatic tube system can serve all areas of a hospital facility including campus complexes, transporting carriers at speeds up to 25 feet per second, providing fast and secure on-demand material transport.

Swisslog's also offers the PillPick ® automated drug management system for centralized, decentralized and hybrid hospital pharmacies. PillPick® is the ultimate automated pharmacy
