Swisslog Promotes Three to Vice President

New sales and human resources executives announced

DENVER, Colo. (January 12, 2011) – Swisslog Healthcare Solutions (HCS), a leading provider of automated materials transport and pharmacy automation solutions for hospitals, today announced it has promoted three executives to the position of vice president.

Ross Moreland, a 14-year company employee, has been promoted to vice president, Northern Region, a new sales management position at Swisslog HCS. Moreland, who is based in Chicago, had been a regional sales manager.

Robert Steelman, a 25-year veteran of the company, has been promoted to vice president, Southern Region, also a new sales management position at the company. Dallas-based Steelman had been a regional sales manager.

Yvette Dolan, who was the company's human resources manager for the past six years, has been promoted to vice president, Human Resources. Dolan's promotion makes her the highest ranking woman at Swisslog HCS. She is based in Denver.

"These promotions recognize years of outstanding service to our organization," said Charlie Kegley, president of Swisslog Healthcare Solutions North America. "Moreover, as some of my direct reports begin to retire, it is important that we prepare for future growth by putting in place the next-generation of senior managers. I'm confident in the leadership skills of our new vice presidents and in their ability to serve our customers, employees and other stakeholders."
