Ordered online today, delivered tomorrow! We live in a dynamic world that's fast-moving in every sense. It's a world where automation and robotics are at the forefront of creating exciting new business opportunities. One of two divisions, Swisslog Logistics Automation (LA) creates automated intralogistics solutions that power warehouses and distribution centers around the world.

As a member of automation experts, the KUKA Group, we're part of a global organization that offers our employees excellent opportunities for personal development and mobility as well as security. We continually push boundaries and drive our business forward, developing innovative, standardized products and services that help our customers optimize their facilities and accurately meet delivery demands and requirements. To do this, we are continually on the lookout for creative, talented people who share our passion for making a difference.

VALUES MADE TO INSPIRE

At Swisslog, every employee is valued and plays an important role in achieving our vision and goals. Everything we do revolves around our corporate values of competence, collaboration, commitment and clarity. To shape a successful future, we promote a culture of passion and innovation, and offer an environment where your talent can be nurtured and you are empowered to make the most of your personal qualities.

As a Swisslog employee, you are continually encouraged to take innovative approaches and inspire continuous improvement. We encourage learning and the development of new skills, and pursue excellence in everything we do. Thanks to our high standards and motivated employees, we are continually at the forefront of our industry.

« What I love about Swisslog is that we're always working with advanced technologies »

Our employees are partners in our joint success. A strong and diverse community, we work as a team, trusting and respecting our colleagues and customers equally. We are committed to achieving the company's goals through courage, collaboration and accountability.

At Swisslog we have a focused strategy and are open and clear in our expectations, responsibilities and communication. We act decisively and with integrity, taking responsibility for our own actions and fulfilling our commitments to our customers, partners, shareholders and each other.

« We are the driving force behind innovations that are shaping the future ...

now we're developing the leaders that will shape ours. »

AN OPPORTUNITY TO GROW WITH US

Swisslog is a great place to work where no two days are the same. We place high importance on a healthy work-life balance and offer a wide range of social benefits such as pensions, healthcare and childcare support.

Our company culture is all about empowerment and ownership in a friendly, collegial environment where you're given the freedom to propose and realize your own ideas. As an employee of a global organization, you'll enjoy a multi-cultural workplace that promotes diversity; you'll work on future-oriented projects, enjoy intensive training and the opportunity to pursue your career both at home and internationally.

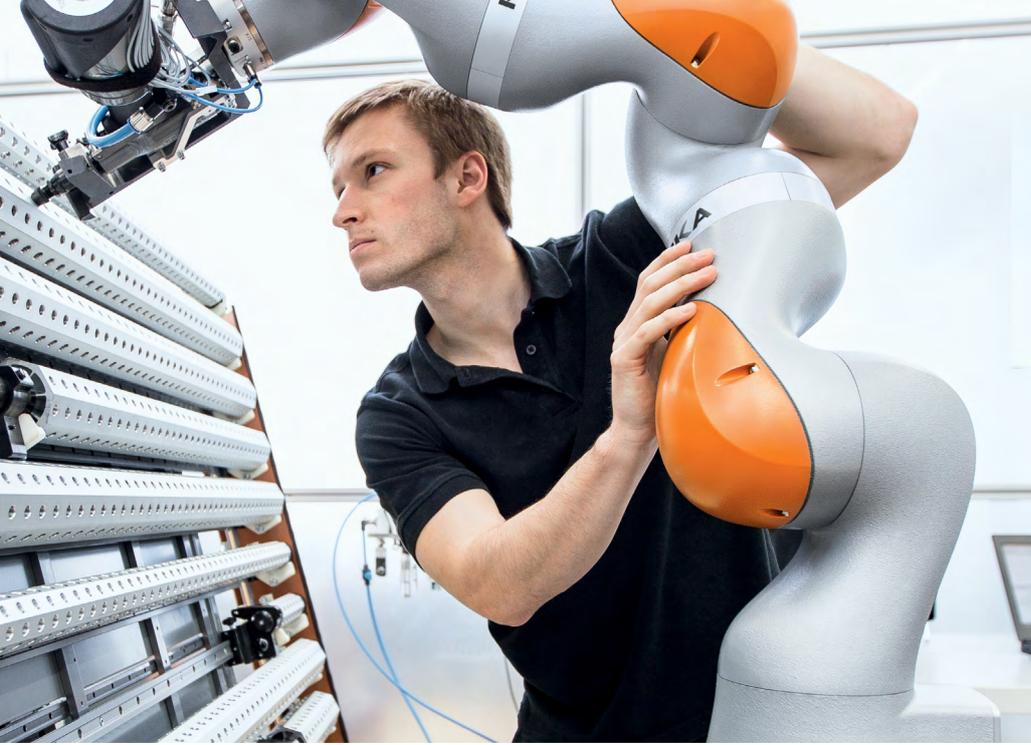

All Swisslog colleagues are inducted onto our talent and performance management program which provides a structured process to share thoughts on training and development requirements and allows us to identify and help individuals looking to progress in their careers.

Our goal is to shape the future of intralogistics and have great fun doing it! If that sounds interesting to you, let's talk.
